Bristow hosts 61st annual tournament Dec. 13-14

By Tabatha Shadow Contributing Writer

On Friday, Dec. 13, and Saturday, Dec. 14, Bristow hosted the 61st annual Bristow Wrestling Tournament at the Chuck West Fieldhouse. Bristow wrestlers placed in eight of 27 teams.

There were 12 Bristow grapplers on the mats, vying for a place. Five medaled.

At 126 pounds, Eric Snodgrass finished the tournament in third place. His first match was a bye so Kade Fugate from Berryhill was his first actual opponent and he defeated Fugate with ease, 11-

Snodgrass took his third match against Chris Davis from Marlow, 5-3. His first loss was against Blake Burden from Cushing with a close score of 8-7. Grant Martin from Vinita suffered a loss at the hands of Snodgrass when was defeated 8-4. Snodgrass won his last match against a Mayson opponent 14-3.

The next Pirate that placed was 145 pound wrestler Johny Cooley. Cooley had a bye in round one then went on to pin Geary wrestler, Ross Shawnee and Pawhuska wrestler, Jayden Higgins.

Colley lost his next three matches, which put him in sixth. His first loss was against Mitch Sellers from Tahlequah, 2-0. Tim Sargent from Vinita beat Cooley 7-2. In this match, both boys shot at the same time knocking heads hard enough to cause Johny to forfeit the last match against Garrett O'Hara from Glenpool.

At 160 pounds, Jonathan Munoz placed third. Munoz pinned both Tyler Leach from Pawnee and Will Esperanza from East Central. His first and only loss was against Seth Scarbough from Marlow with a total score of 10-5.

Munoz came back with four more wins, pinning Wesley Swingle from Grove; defeating Alex Kaufman in overtime 3-2; defeating Glenpool's Dylan I ichol, 9-8 and Fischer Medlin from Wagoner, 2-1.

Tyler Logan took fourth in the 170 weight class. Logan had three pins to start off his tournament, taking Raymond Harrington from Okmulgee, Bryce Shepherd from Marlow, and Brandon Street from Vinita. Tahlequah wrestler, Reese Davis pinned Tyler in his fourth match. Zallin Edwards from Pawhuska lost to Tyler, 5-2 in the next match and in his final match against Joey Barnett from Berryhill Logan suffered a close loss, 5-4.

Jacob Etheridge placed second in the heavyweight division. Etheridge took a bye in his first match, then went on to take his next three matches with ease

Chris Franz from Marlow, Dakota Jester from Pawhuska, and Joe Tucker from Tahlequah were all pinned in less than a minute. Franz' championship match against Vinita wrestler Dylan Enyart was a 3-1 loss.

The Pirate wrestlers are hosting another tournament this weekend on Dec. 20 and Dec. 21 at the Chuck West Fieldhouse. The dual tournament will start at noon Friday and 11 a.m. Saturday.

Tie Breaker - Packers total rushing:

Da Rulez: The Pick-da-Winner contest is open to anyone on the planet, age 18 or older with the exception of employees of the Bristow News and their immediate families. The form must be filled out completely and legibly, in order to be considered a valid entry. Only one entry per person, per week, will be allowed. Entries will be accepted at the Bristow News office at 112 W Sixth Street, Bristow, no later than 2 p.m. Friday. No entries will be accepted after 4 p.m. on Friday... none, nada, zilch! Circle the team you predict will win in each sponsor's box above. Any games left blank will be considered by the judges to be a wrong guess. A point will be awarded for each correct answer. The entry with the most points will be chosen as the winner. Winners must pick up the prize packets in person -- they will not be mailed. Ties for first place will be settled by the tie breaker question. If it's blank, your entry is invalid and will not be scored. The Grand Prize will be awarded to the person with the most TOTAL points at the end of the contest. Grand prize tie will be broken by the closest tie breaker answer in the final entry form. DECISIONS OF THE JUDGES ARE

FINAL. Bristow News reserves the right to cancel or alter this promotion at any time.
